

Technical Skills & Training Conference

UNIVERSITY OF NORTHWESTERN OHIO

Training and Product Knowledge You Need An Event You Can't Afford To Miss!

What

The Professional Restylers Organization (PRO) of SEMA is launching a new technical training program designed specifically for restylers and installers. This one day program is packed with installation training and product knowledge brought directly to you by the product manufacturers. Attendees will also enjoy the opportunity to network with peers and industry professionals.

Where: University of Northwestern Ohio, Lima, OH

When: Friday, April 30, 2010

The program:

- There will be 12 seminar/workshops consisting of 1 hour each of classroom training, 2 classes running concurrently throughout the day in the following tracks, including these manufacturers:
  - Leather (Katzkin)
  - Sunroofs (Webasto, Donmar)
  - 12 volt (Audiovox, Metra, Webasto)
  - Truck Accessories
    - Diesel Performance (Superchips)
    - Towing (Curt Manufacturing)
  - Self Adhesive (Paint protection film, wraps, adhesive trim products, graphics) (Restylers Choice, Eagle Enterprises; more to be announced)
  - ASE/A6 Electrical (Webasto)
  - ProPledge Seminar
- "Bullpen" with hands-on installation training in addition to the classes
- Catered Lunch
- PRO Council General Membership Meeting: Learn about PRO and what we're doing for the industry, and how you can participate.
- Evening cocktail reception: Drinks, food, fun and networking
- PRO Long-Range Planning Meeting for PRO Members, Saturday May 1
- FREE SEMA MEMBERSHIP ($100 value) for non-SEMA member attendees, and ½ off PRO dues ($25 off the $50.00 annual dues). We want you to see the benefits from being a SEMA member with this special offer!

Cost: $25 for first attendee from each company, $15 for each additional person. Registration form can be accessed at www.sema.org/tstc Click on "Registration" box at right side of page.
